

Jayadev Kar, MA (English), M.Phil (English), MSW, LL.B, is an Indian English poet, writer, statesman, critic, and social worker in the same vein. He has published several articles in journals of national and international repute. He has already two books to his credit out of which "Symbolism in American Literature" is a myth-making work published in 2017 by Scholars' Press, Germany, and available throughout the world. He is currently teaching English literature at D.A.V. (Autonomous) College, Titilagarh, Dist.-Balangir, Odisha, India. Apart from that, he is an approved counsellor of Odisha State Open University, Sambalpur, and IGNOU, New Delhi. Jayadev Kar is a member of ELTAI too. He is also a Human Rights educator certified by Youth for Human Rights International, Los Angeles, USA. For his strategy to check distress migration, he has been felicitated by IPE Global and International Justice Mission in days gone by.

This anthology is the expression of personal feelings and objective truths as experienced by the mystic poet himself in this ephemeral and transitory world. The poems deal with pertinent themes and are didactic in nature. Some poems are written in couplet form whereas some others have been written just in blank verse. These poems depict the grim reality of contemporary society in a lucid manner. Thinking about a thing is one thing, writing the thought in the paper is yet another thing, and penning them down in charming poetic form is yet another thing and that has been done in the book. People from all walks of life including children can easily fathom the pith and substance of almost all poems.
